

Washington? I have no problem with that. As I indicated earlier, the more the merrier.

SPEAKER NICHOL: With that, Mr. President, I would make a...

PRESIDENT: Move for the unanimous attendance of all the Legislature in Washington. Is that it, Senator?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, for any that wish to go. I would so move that. I think it would be appropriate to have a vote on that.

PRESIDENT: Technically we can't formally amend the resolution by a motion now, since the resolution has passed. Perhaps it is a policy matter that the Speaker and the Executive Board can work out.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay. The Chairman of the Executive Board has agreed, as I understand, to this. We'll just do it. Whatever needs to be done in a formal manner here will be.

PRESIDENT: Senator Chronister, are you...oh, excuse me. That's right. Senator Beutler, I guess as Chairman of the Executive Council, have you been listening to this colloquy here with Senator...he wants to know if he has your cooperation. Senator Nichol.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well the Speaker certainly has my cooperation. I assume that he would probably have Senator Pirsch's cooperation too. Unless we hear protest from the rest of the body about that proposed policy, I assume we will just proceed to do that.

PRESIDENT: Very well. Senator Higgins, want a point?

SENATOR HIGGINS: Thank you, Mr. President. I would like to ask the Speaker a question.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Senator Nichol, after we decided, first there was debate about sending 10, now there are 20. I believe I voted for it. I'm just curious as to why...how many members do we have on the Agriculture Committee?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Are there eight?
